

WEALTH MANAGERS OF CHICAGO

Chicagoland Financial Advisors Redefine “Investing for the Future”

By: Alex Curlee

Award-winning* wealth manager, Mark Magajne, and financial consultant, Joseph Vidmar, are going beyond the scope of traditional investing by participating in the Chicago Powerhouse Academy's Practicum Program. As part of the program, Chicago Public School student, Domonique Bealer, spends time at the 410 W. Grand office shadowing the financial group for insight into wealth management. Domonique feels her time is well spent as she is “learning important life skills not found in the classroom.”

Financial planners, Magajne and Vidmar, mentoring Domonique Bealer, proud recipient of The Magajne Group College Scholarship.

Mark also enjoys his new role and believes that “when you are passionate about your career, it’s easy to mentor and inspire others to follow your path. I’ve benefitted from mentors throughout my life. This is my way of giving back.”

Both Mark and Joe consider the time and resources spent on young adults who are working toward careers in the business world as a great investment for the future.
